

Good Stuff to Chew On: A Heartfelt Thank You

If you are at all like me, the Holiday season is so busy you have little time to think. Since Thanksgiving I have been rushing around with my head full of things to do, and some days, I catch myself praying for more than 24 hours. But for right now, this minute, I want to take just a moment to extend my thanks to all of you who have made my year memorable.

First of all, I want to thank those of you who are loyal clients and who continue to value the service we provide. Your faith in Desert Dental Staffing is heartwarming to me personally and keeps renewing my confidence in this rewarding business we are all a part of. I know this has been an economically challenging year for all of us, but we are stronger for the challenge and I have faith that 2010 will be prosperous for us all.

Thank you, too, to those of you who have sought our help in finding work this year. You have made it possible for Desert Dental Staffing to consistently represent the highest qualified dental professionals available in the Valley. Without you and your excellent skills, we would not be here.

I would also like thank everyone who has put their faith in us to the test by referring us to a client, friend or family member. Whether you are a client, a job seeker, a consultant, a vendor, a rep or just a friend of Desert Dental Staffing, your confidence in us has helped us to succeed this year. Thank you for believing in us. The best way we can repay you is to help develop the highest quality teams in the Valley for those you refer us to. You can trust that our goal is to do just that.

And finally, I want to extend a very special thank you to Patterson Dental, a client who, when we asked them to help, stepped forward and donated hundreds of toothbrushes to needy families in the Valley. Your unconditional generosity and concern for the less fortunate members of our community are what this season is all about.

I know this has been a challenging year for all of us. My prayer is that 2010 will reward you all for your perseverance and commitment to being the best you can be, regardless of what life throws at you. Here's to a year of growth, prosperity and dreams fulfilled for each and every one of you. Happy Holidays!

Quote of the Month

“Strange, isn't it? Each man's life touches so many other lives, and when he isn't around, he leaves an awful hole, doesn't he?”
